

Stothert Vetoes Wasteful Spending

Political praise to Mayor Jean Stothert for vetoing taxpayer funding of a half-million dollar permanent bike lane which obstructs traffic, a streetscape that could be privately funded, and $15,000 for a special web page for one city council member, though all council members already have designated web pages. Property tax $$$ should fund only basic city services like public safety, libraries, etc.

Email: netaxpayers@gmail.com to join our NTF City Watch Project.